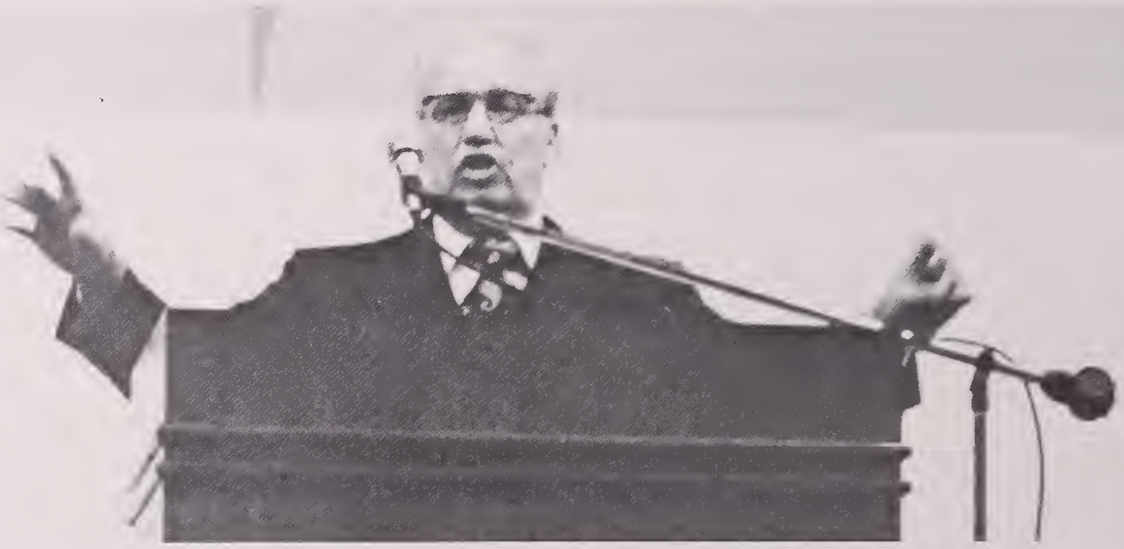
KING'S CHAPEL

STEVE

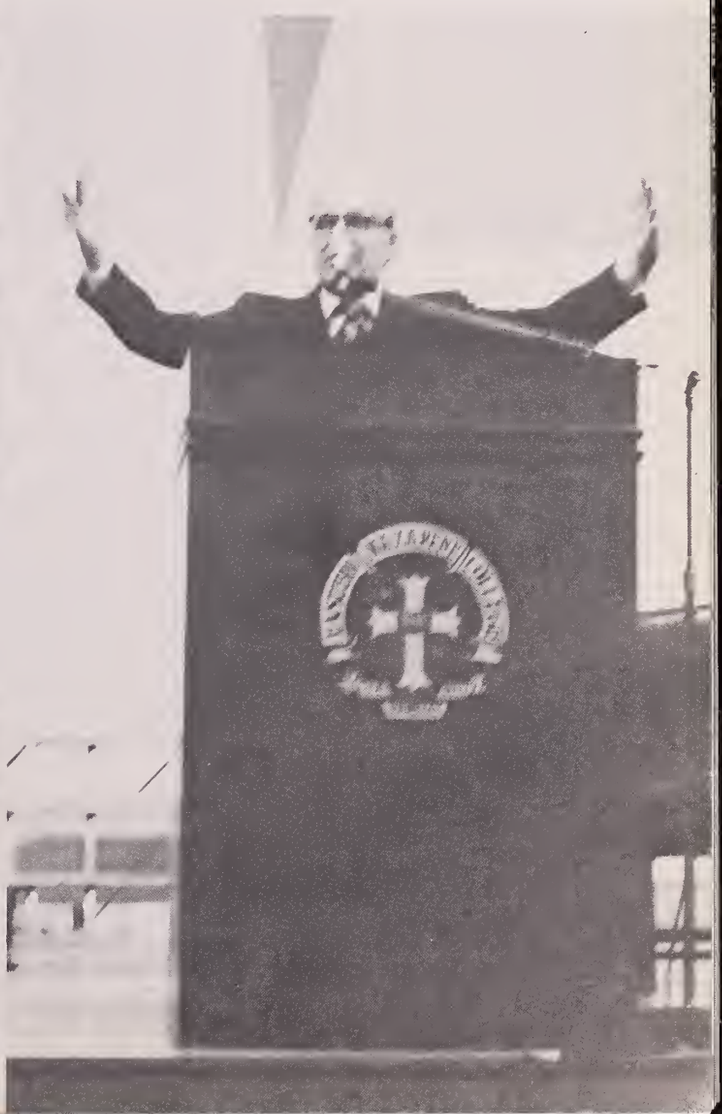
MARIA

On the evening of Oct. 1, 1976 Steve and Maria thrilled many students and Motorcaders with their musical talent and versitality, Maria with her sweet voice and Steve with his mellow voice and guitar playing expertise. The talented Steve wrote and composed almost all of his material. An evening of good music and spiritual uplifting was enjoyed by all.

Armand Doll culmanated his speaking engagement upon his arrival at ENC. Rev. Doll, a missionary to Mozanbique, relayed some of his experiences concerning his imprisonment to the capacity crowd. Rev. Doll was imprisoned and held for a period of excess of a year, arrested, held without charge or trial. Much mystery surrounded his imprisonment. Upon his release, 8 weeks previous, Rev. Doll now speaks of Gods sustaining grace and holding power. Rev. Doll displayed his purposed book which tells of his adventures and trials while imprisoned in Mozambique.



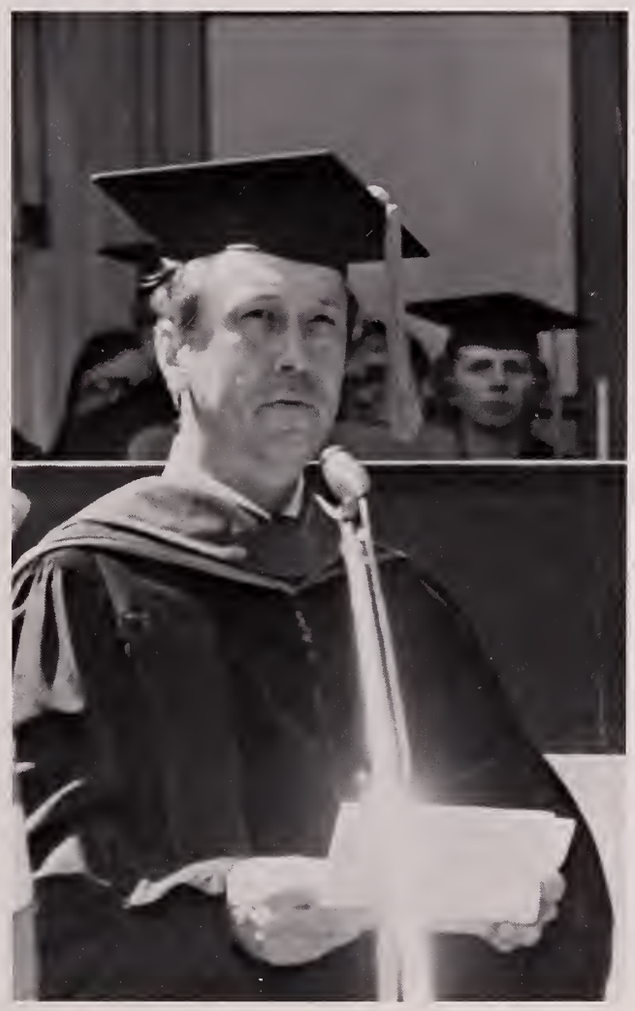
Armand Doll thrilled and delighted the many who came to hear of Gods saving and keeping power, expounding on his experiences in Mozambique. His spirit reached out to everyone urging them to trust God for whatever they were encountering at the present, that God will handle any situation if we will give it over to him.



The joy these seniors have just experienced will never again be equaled.

Seniors mill around, talk, and remember their past four life-shaping years at ENC.

President Irwin and Stephen Nease discuss commencement procedings.



Roy Carnahan assresses the friends of ENC before the mortgage burning ceremony.

1. Mr. Warren Lahue burns the mortgage on Eastern Nazarene College. This great day occured 12 years earlier than anticapated, much joy surrounded the 1977 commencement, and he didn't even burn his fingers.
2. Proud mothers brandishing Instamatics line the sidewalk as Dr. Brickly leads the senior procession.
3. Roy Carnahan speaks concerning the mortgage burning.
4. Dr. Lowell Hall ignites the match to burn the mortgage.
5. Eastern Nazarene College professors watch the procedings with mixed attentions.

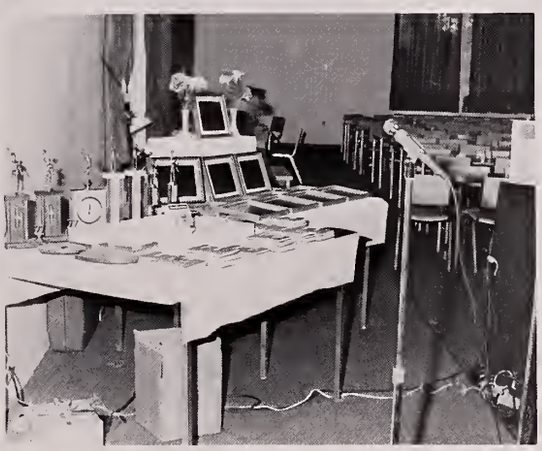
SPORTS

SPORTS BANQUET



One of the most successful events of the year was the Varsity Club Banquet. The Varsity athletes enjoyed a roast beef dinner. New members of Varsity Club were awarded their letters and certificates, plaques were also presented. Each of the seniors had their turn at the mike to relate what their college sports career has meant to them.

For the second year in a row Gordie Wetmore received the Carol F. Bradley Award. This years SUPERFAN of the YEAR award was presented to Mr. T. R. Benson, retiring coach of the tennis team.

To finish
is painful, to win
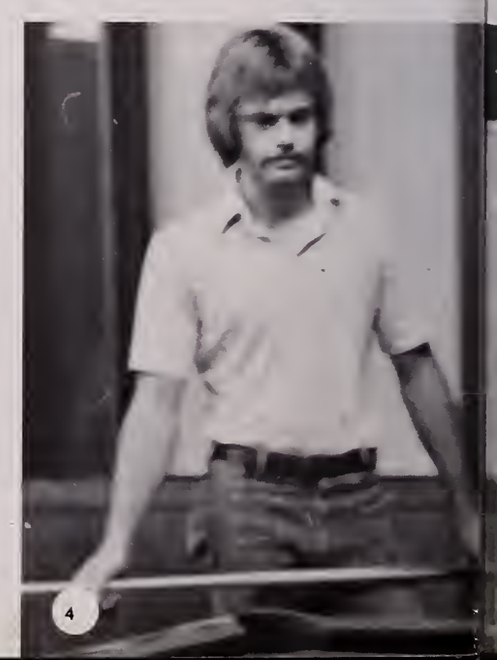
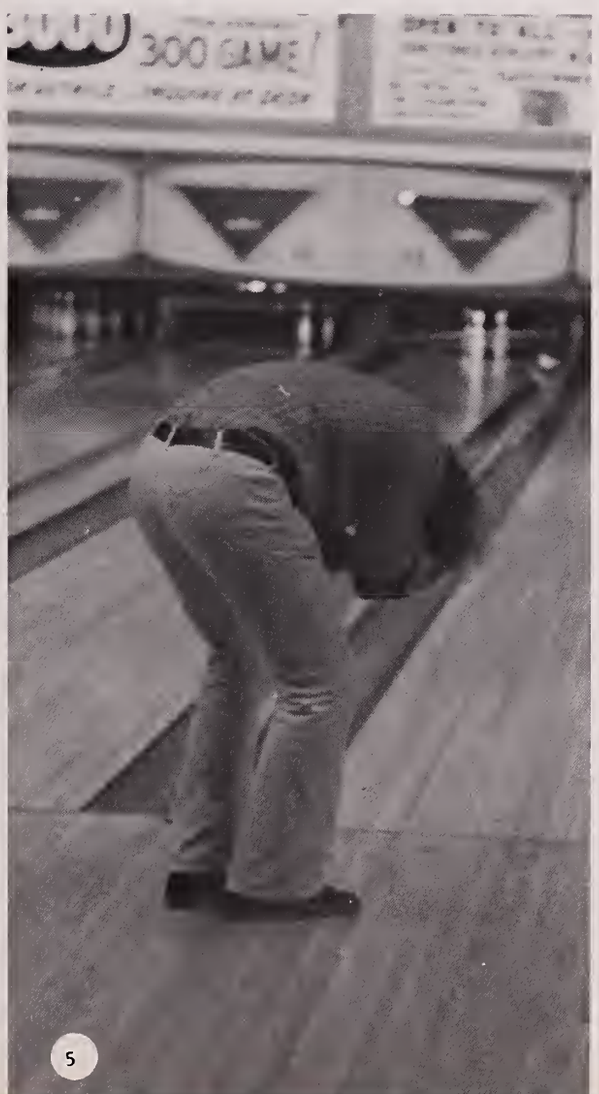
is agonizing.

Mike Mello puts on a fine effort, digging on the straight and pouring it on in the home strech. Body and pavement are one, in a total concerted effort.

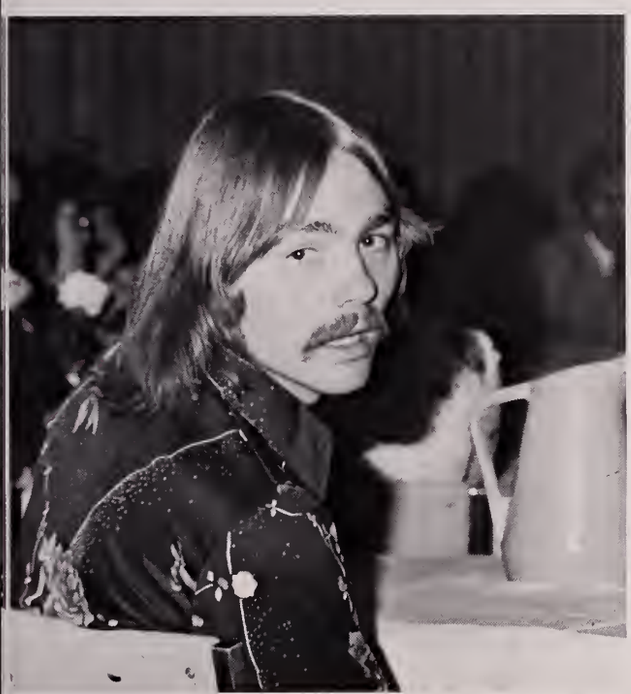
1. No Dave, you roll the ball down the middle of the lane.
2. We told you Dave the middle, not the gutter.
3. Janice, a hustler?





4. John's a good teacher and Cathy's a fast learner.
5. Now, now Dave, don't cry. We'll let you try it again.
6. See there Dave, just follow directions and you'll hit the head pin.

Varsity Banquet brings together many diverse personalities all to receive the recognition of being an athlete in the spirit of Christ.



Chapel represents the time to share the Lords word. The ministering to the needs of the individual, revival having fellowship ... or finishing homework for the next class period.

The views expressed here do not necessarily reflect the views of Eastern Nazarene College. Time will be made available for opposing viewpoints.

Acknowledgements

After numerous disappointing setbacks caused by photography studios, United States Postal Service, et al, this 1977 NAUTILUS has been completed.
For the countless hours of service beyond the call of duty, sincere appreciation is given to Pat Carney and Bob Murphy of Josten's American Yearbook Company.
